The Los Angeles Flute Orchestra (LAFO), founded in 1999, is a professional ensemble comprised of Los Angeles based flutists. The LAFO has become one of the most recognizable flute choirs in the Los Angeles area, performing at venues ranging from the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion and the Disney Hall - Redcat Theater, to the Palos Verdes South Coast Botanical Gardens and the Santa Monica Pier. The group has also been a featured flute choir at recent National Flute Association Conventions in Las Vegas and Anaheim. With a versatile and unique instrumentation featuring the entire flute family including some of the largest flutes in the world, as well as unique ethnic instruments, LAFO's style covers the full spectrum from baroque and classical favorites, to jazz, pop, contemporary and world music. The group is dedicated to the performance of original works and often collaborates with and premieres works by local and contemporary composers. Whether on the concert stage, in the park, in the sanctuary, or at a private event, the group will present both original and traditional music heard nowhere else!
